

DoJang Rules

1. NO smoking in the DoJang at any time.
2. NO gum chewing in any class.
3. NO profanity will be used in the DoJang.
4. NO jewelry will be worn during class.
5. Students are not allowed to belong to any other DoJang.
6. Never lose your temper in the DoJang, for any reason, but especially during sparring.
7. Never leave class for a break, water or an early dismissal without permission.
8. Never lean on the walls or lay spread out on the floor.
9. Students must keep fingernails and toenails clipped short and clean.
10. NO horseplay, whistling, or loud talking is permitted in the DoJang.
11. NO talking while the instructor is talking.
12. Have discipline while training.
13. Phone if you will be late or cannot attend a class.
14. When you see your instructor, you must bow to him.
15. Bow to the flag before entering and leaving the DoJang.
16. Always respect your instructor. Address him by his proper title when asking or answering questions.
17. Respect your senior belts; bow when asking a question.
18. Keep your uniform clean at all times.
19. DO NOT face your instructor when fixing your uniform or belt.
20. Always remember that you are learning a potentially dangerous art. Treat it with respect and never misuse it.